

APRIL is Sexual Assault Awareness Month

SAAM “Kick off” Event Tuesday, April 1st 11-2 PM @ Tate Plaza

Join us for games, resources, giveaways, and make a t-shirt for the Clothesline Project!

Shirts and supplies provided.

Consent Day w/SHAG Monday, April 7th 12-3 PM @ Tate Plaza

You're invited to an interactive day of games, activities, dialogue, trivia, & giveaways while learning the importance of sexual consent.

Cookies provided by Marti's at Midday & Insomnia Cookies

Check out the Clothesline Project ALL month at various locations on campus!

The Clothesline Project Display:

4/1 — 4/5 University Health Center
4/7 — 4/14 Tate Plaza Breezeway
4/15 — 4/18 Herty Field
4/21 — 4/24 University Health Center
4/25— 4/30 ECV & Snelling Dining Halls

Take Back the Night Friday, April 18th 5:30 PM @ College Square (downtown Athens)

Join us for WSSO's annual event which features an empowering rally and march against sexual & relationship violence and includes music, march, and candlelight vigil.

Denim Day & “Blurred Lines” Wednesday, April 23rd

Denim Day: A worldwide Awareness Day that began in 1998 after an Italian Court overturned a rape conviction because the victim was wearing tight jeans. They believed the jeans were impossible to remove without the help of the person wearing them, therefore implying consent. Wear jeans (and get a free button @ MLC) to show there is NO excuse for sexual violence. 11–2 PM Jittery Joes @ MLC; Group photo for any participating students at 1:05 pm

UGA's InterActivism Peer Theater Group presents “Blurred Lines”: an interactive theater performance that involves audience members in challenging perceptions of sexual violence and rape culture on college campuses. Performance starts at 7:00; doors open at 6:30 PM @ MLC RM 148

Stay updated on all the events!
www.twitter.com/RSVPatUGA
www.facebook.com/RSVPatUGA

